“AquaVenture 2013 Season Ends After August 18”

It's been another successful season at the Norfolk Memorial AquaVenture Water Park. With school starting next week, there won't be many swimmers or lifeguards available to swim at or staff the park. The park will continue to operate through next Wednesday, August 14. It will be closed Thursday and Friday, August 15 and 16 and then reopen for the weekend of August 17 and 18. The park will then close for the 2013 season on August 19.

City of Norfolk Recreation Coordinator Pat VonGlan asks that season ticket holders save their membership cards and refill them in the 2014 swimming season next May. People can still purchase season tickets as gifts at the City offices at 309 North 5th Street.

There are still many lost and found items at the park that will be donated to charity on August 19. Employment opportunities will be available in a few months.

“Those interested in working at AquaVenture Park in 2014 are advised to watch the City of Norfolk job opportunities page for information at <http://www.ci.norfolk.ne.us/HumanResources> starting in December. We'll be hiring people to work as lifeguards and in the concessions early 2014,” said Sheila Schukei, Human Resources Director for the City of Norfolk.
