“Norfolk Youth Leadership Council Addresses City Council”

Twelve members of the Norfolk Youth Leadership Council attended the Norfolk City Council meeting Monday night to inform the council of issues the group is concerned about. Arria Lakha, the president of the group, spoke to the council about high college tuition, more activities available for youth and the proposed recreation center with other members telling the council of their interest in an animal shelter and housing for younger people. After the meeting, council members took time to talk to the youth about future activities of the Leadership Council.

Jesse Ferguson, Arria Lakha, Courtney Cowling and Vicki Klafter, all members of the Norfolk Youth Leadership Council, discuss issues concerning youth with Councilman Dale Coy after the Norfolk City Council meeting Monday, October 19.
