Members of the Norfolk Tree Advisory Board presented the 2014 Green Leaf Award to Faith Regional Health Services at the recent City Council meeting. The purpose of the award is to recognize a business or industry that has made outstanding choices in landscaping with ongoing upkeep and maintenance. This is the fourth year in a row that the Tree Advisory Board has recognized a business. Past recipients include Women's Health of Northeast Nebraska, Sunset Plaza Mall, and the Stratton, Delay, Doele, Carlson, and Buettner office. Presenting the award was Susan Donahue, chairman of the Tree Advisory board along with Terry Hochstein and G. Tom Surber, Tree board members. Accepting the award was FRHS Chief Operating Officer Kelly Driscoll and groundskeeper Tom Barnes.
